TRACK RECORD OF ACHIEVING KEY MILESTONES

PointsBet Australia has continued to invest in brand positioning and awareness raising activities, including sponsoring the stadium name of National Rugby League team, the Cronulla Sharks, now known as PointsBet Stadium, and leveraging the growing popularity of US sports in Australia through a national advertising campaign utilising NBA legend Allen Iverson.

PointsBet US Market Access

As stated in the Company’s prospectus, there is a significant market opportunity in the US, following a 2018 Supreme Court decision which enables individual states to introduce legislation permitting sports betting. PointsBet is well positioned to take advantage of this opportunity, with strong leadership, experienced management and scalable technology that has been well-developed in the sophisticated Australian wagering market.

The Company’s scalable cloud-based technology platform, which uses a combination of proprietary internally developed software and technology, and irrevocably-licenced third-party software and technology, is key to unlocking the post-PASPA US market opportunity.

Since receiving a license to operate as an online bookmaker in New Jersey in H1FY19, PointsBet now has market access agreements in three additional States, being Illinois, Iowa, and Colorado. PointsBet also has a second skin agreement to operate in New York, subject to enabling legislation.

On 1 July 2019, PointsBet announced Hawthorne Racecourse as its market access partner in Illinois. Hawthorne Racecourse is one of the oldest racetracks in the United States and is notable for its close proximity to downtown Chicago (8.5 miles or 13.7 kilometres), the third largest urban area in the country.

PointsBet anticipates it will begin accepting bets in Illinois at some point during the upcoming 2019/20 NFL season and in Iowa, where it announced a market access partnership in April 2019, in H1 FY20.

Corporate Update

PointsBet has recently appointed former Aristocrat Leisure CTO Manjit Gombra Singh as President, Product and Technology, further bolstering PointsBet's experienced management team.

The Company has increased its headcount in the US to 49 Full Time Equivalents (FTEs), who are currently based in its office in New Jersey. New Jersey, as the first market PointsBet has entered in the US, serves as the shopfront of the Company's broader US expansion. The Company plans to open a second US office in Denver, Colorado. In Australia, the Company has increased its headcount to 100 FTEs.

Net cash used in operating activities in the quarter ending 30 June 2019 was A$11.1 million, in line with management's expectation, as PointsBet continued disciplined and focused marketing and promotional initiatives aimed at attracting and retaining clients in Australia and the US and hired staff to execute the Company's US strategy.

Investor Calendar

PointsBet intends to announce its FY19 results on 28 August 2019. Conference call details will be announced in due course.
